

Course Outline

Course Type	Course Code	Name of the Course	L	T	P	Credits
	NHSA103	Understanding Human Behaviour	2	1	0	3

Course Objective
The central objective of the course is to have a general understanding of the concepts in psychology and to analyze behavior and cognition in different contexts
Learning Outcomes
Upon successful completion of this course, students should: 1. have an understanding of key psychological concepts and theories. 2. demonstrate critical thinking skills by analyzing psychological phenomena in everyday life. 3. be able to apply psychological principles to solve practical problems.

Unit No.	Topics to be Covered	Lecture Hours	Learning Outcome
1	Introduction: Branches of Psychology, Studying behaviour, Major perspectives in psychology	4L+2T	Understanding the foundations of psychology, its various branches and applications across different domains
2	Learning and Development Learning: Defining learning, Classical Conditioning, Operant Conditioning, Applications of Learning Development: Learning to be Moral, Learning to Attach (Relationships)	6L+3T	Understanding the different theories of learning and its application in everyday life Understanding the process of acquiring morality and building relationships
3	Cognition and the Brain Cognition: Fundamentals of thinking, reasoning, decision making, and problem-solving. Biology of the mind: The brain and nervous system. Neuroscience of thinking and decision making.	6L+3T	Understanding higher cognitive processes which have day-to-day relevance. Also, being familiar with the biological basis of the mind.
4	Person in Society Theories of group antagonism, stereotypes, prejudice, discrimination, minimizing prejudice, Group Influence, Group Decision Making	6L+3T	Understanding the basics of social psychological theories in the context of attitude formation, change and group-related processes
5	Psychopathology Psychological Disorders: anxiety disorders, mood disorders, dissociative disorders, childhood disorders, personality disorders, substance-related and addictive disorders	6L+3T	Understanding the major psychological disorders and their causes.
		28L+14T

Text Books:

1. Baron, R.A & Mishra, G. (2013). Psychology (Indian Subcontinent Edition). New Delhi: Pearson

Reference Books:

1. Branscombe, Baron, & Kapur (2017). Social Psychology (14/E). Pearson.